Jeff Evans' Strolling Magic

"Because not all entertainment takes place on a stage."

When the impossible happens in an up-close environment, the impact is magnified - people react! The fun just happens as Jeff travels from group to group, mingling with your fairgoers.

Unlike stage shows that require sound, lights, and big props, Jeff's Strolling Magic goes anywhere. The magic happens up close, sometimes even in a spectator's hands!

"It was an outstanding display of mystery and delight! I would highly recommend you as a magician of extraordinary talent and personality! Your show is one that will fit any venue."

-Debbie Adix
Scheduling Coordinator
Pacific Lutheran University

You'll be amazed with Jeff's unique ability to captivate audiences of young kids, super-cool teens, parents and seniors citizens. Jeff delivers high-energy fun that grabs the audience and sends them away feeling great about their day at your fair.

Call or e-mail Jeff today for rates and availability for your event.
